

THIS WE BELIEVE: HAWAI'I ISLAND, WAIKOLOA REGION

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY
- WAIKOLOA REGION

See the sights of the Big Island of Hawai'i, hear the sounds, delight in the aromas, taste the flavors, feel the Aloha. Read what people who love this paradise believe.

Inside these covers are inspiration from some of the persons well known by those who live and vacation here: Hawaiian cultural ambassador and Kumu Hula, Hawaii State elected officials, renowned musicians and dancers, and community members representing various ages, ethnicities and geographies.

This is a people's book and its contributors have opened their hearts and minds to share with you in both written and artistic forms. The book includes submissions from 47 writers and 40 artists, and 42 pages of the book are in full color.

"A lei can be made up of a string of words of love sewn together."

Danny Akaka
